The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year:] THURSDAY, March 29, 1764. [N°. 986.]

LONDON, December 10.

IMMEDIATELY after the Verdict was pronounced, in Favour of Mr. Dryden Leach, (the Master Printer who was arrested as the supposed Printer of the celebrated North-Briton, N°. 45,) the Gentlemen concerned for the Plaintiffs declared, "That as they had "the Happiness of seeing vindicated, asserted, and "maintained, all the great and constitutional "Points of Liberty, which had been so solemnly "debated and determined, they were willing to "accept nominal Damages, (which carry Costs of "Suit,) in the next Five Causes." A Proposition so generous, and highly meritorious from Conquerors, was readily acquiesced in by the Council for the Crown, commended by the Court, and applauded by the whole Audience.

Part of the Conclusion of the Speech of——

"This Warrant is unconstitutional, illegal, "and absolutely void: It is a general Warrant, "directed to Four Messengers, to take up any "Persons, without naming or describing them "with any Certainty, and to bring them together "with their Papers. If it be good, a Secretary "of State can delegate and depute any one of the "Messengers, or any even from the lowest of the "People, to take Examinations, to commit or "release, and in fine to do every Act which the "highest judical Officers the Law knows can do "in order. There is no Authority in our Law "Books that mention these Kind of Warrants, "but in express Terms condemn them.

"I do venture to pronounce this Warrant illegal. However, I am well pleased that this Matter is finally to be decided upon in the highest Court of Judicature in this Kingdom, where able and most learned Judges will argue and determine the Point; and if I am there found to have given a wrong Opinion, I shall kiss the Rod; but I shall always say, it is a Rod of Iron upon the People of this Kingdom."

Nov. 21. Thursday last Sir James Hodges, Knt. Town Clerk of this City, waited on the late Lord Mayor, William Beckford, Esq; with the following Thanks, in Pursuance of an Order of Common Council made the 15th Inst.

"It is unanimously Resolved, and Ordered, That the Thanks of this Court be given to the Right Hon. William Beckford, Esq; late Lord Mayor of this City, for his having supported the Dignity of that high and important Office with Splendor, Magnificence, and Hospitality: for his Able, speedy, and Impartial Administration of Justice; for the easy Access he has given to all our Fellow-Citizens; for his Readiness to call Courts of Common Council, whenever the public Service required, and his punctual Attendance upon them; for his true and disinterested Loyalty to the King; his vigilant and steady Attachment to the constitutional Rights of his Fellow Subjects, and his Firmness in promoting, on all Occasions, the true Interest of this great Metropolis.

Friday last the Tide in the River Thames, at 9 o'Clock, which was then flowing, suddenly stopped and ebbed, for the Space of an Hour, after which it returned and flowed the usual Time.

Letters from Calais by the French Mail advise, that amongst a great Number of Wrecks which appeared on Friday last in the violent Storm, was a fishing Vessel with Fifteen or Sixteen Hands on Board, which lay at Anchor within about Forty Yards of the Harbour. The Wind blowing a hard Gale, caused all the Hatches to be fastened down, at which Time Five of the Men were below, when all at once she sunk down to the Bottom, and not one thing appeared till some Time after, when the Body of one of the Men was driven ashore. As soon as Assistance could be got from Calais, several Persons went on Board, and on opening the Hold, found the Five Men sitting upright, drowned. The Occasion of her sinking was owing to her having a Leak.

Nov. 28. The King of Spain has issued an Ordinance, prohibiting the Use of any foreign Cloth, in the Cloathing of his Troops.

It is said that a celebrated poetical Genius will be tried as one of the Publishers of the Essay on Woman, complained of by our Superiors.

From the Edinburgh Courant, Nov. 30.

By the Right Hon. the Lord Provost and Magistrates, and his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Shire of Edinburgh.

"Whereas, on occasion of the late accidental Scarcity of Lothian Meal, the Magistrates of this City have been at great Pains to get the Market supplied, and their Endeavours have been attended already with considerable Success, and proper Provision is making for the future; notwithstanding whereof, there still appears a Spirit of Sedition and Tumult prevailing among many wicked Persons, and one of the Magistrates did last Night receive an anonymous threatening Letter, in the Words following, viz.

"To the Town-council. Gentlemen, As we "swear, so we shall perform, That, if you do not "relieve all Prisoners, and put a Stop to the ex-"amination of those that were at thy Moab, it is "unanimously agreed upon, by upwards of an "Hundred Persons, that any Bailie or Bailies, "that examines any Person or Persons, they may "depend upon it they shall suffer both in Person "and Effects by a Company of People, to exten-"sive to enumerate. This from one in the Party "concerned, and is yours."

On which the above Magistrates have offered a Reward of 40 l. Sterling for discovering the Author.

On a Tomb-Stone in Heyden Church-Yard, near Hull, in Yorkshire, is the following Inscription: Here lies the Body of William Sturt, of Patrington, buried May 18, 1685, aged 97 Years. He had Children by his first Wife 28, by his second 17, own Father to 43, Grandfather to 86, Great Grandfather to 97, Great Great Grandfather to 23, in all 251.

Some Letters from Barbados mention, that the Spanish Governor of Cuba has prohibited the Importation of Negroes from Africa, or the Entrance of any English Guineyment into any of the Ports of that Island.

BARBADOS, December 30.

We hear, that the Fishery on the Newfoundland Coast has been very successful this Season: That upwards of 600 Sail of British, and 200 Sail of French Vessels were employed: That some Bickerings happened between the English and French, the latter of which insisted on an exclusive Right of Fishing on that Part of the Coast allotted to them by the Treaty, which was denied by the English, who very justly told them, that though a Right was given them to Fish on that Part of the Coast, yet it did not preclude them from Fishing there likewise. Commodore Greaves who commanded on that Station, sent two Frigates to keep them quiet. When the French sailed for Europe, they left all their fishing Boats, amounting to several Hundred, and a large Quantity of Salt, behind them; which being directly contrary to the Treaty, the Commodore ordered the whole to be destroyed, which was effectually done. They further add, that all the Frigates and Sloops have been fully employed by the Commodore in taking Draughts and Soundings in the Bays, &c. on the Coast of Labrador, where it is thought even a more extensive Fishery than on the Newfoundland Coast may be carried on.

CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) Feb. 4.

Extract of a Letter from Mobille, dated Dec. 27.

"Myself acquainted you that M. l'Abadie, the Governor of New-Orleans, was here, had delivered a good public Talk, and was giving Presents to the Chactahs and some other Indians, three Years due: I promised to send you a Copy of this Talk, but have been disappointed of it. Among the Chactahs there was not a Man of the English Party, tho' they came from no less than 57 Towns; these all refused to come, tho' the whole Nation was invited. The Presents delivered them were very considerable, amongst them was a great Number of Guns, and near 6000 lb. of Gun powder and Balls; of every other Article they had in Proportion: Immense Promises were likewise made them; in particular that they should be sent for again in six Months, to New-Orleans, to receive more considerable Presents there, if they behaved well; and they have all returned pretty well satisfied. Whatever may have been said in Public to the Indians, recommending that they should look upon, and behave to the English and French as one People, it is certain that in private no Pains nor Arts have been wanting to withhold them from an Alliance with us, by telling them, "That the English only wanted their Lands, would give them nothing, ule their Women ill, and at last make Slaves of the Men;" and by inviting them all to settle on the Western Banks of the Mississippi, where they should have Lands and Hunting-Grounds far superior to what they now possessed, and real Friends about them. In short, it is my Opinion, that the French have some future Prospect in View, that cannot tend to our Good, for they spare no direct or indirect Means to gain and reserve the Friendship of every Indian Tribe or Nation. Some small Tribes that were settled around this Place, and were very useful to the Inhabitants, by killing Deer, catching Fish, &c. have in this Manner been withdrawn to New-Orleans: An Attempt of this Sort was made while Col. Robertson was here, with a Tribe that have a Town of about 50 Men 30 Miles up this River, and were going to be carried off in French Boats; but the Colonel sent for the Headman, and gave him Assurances, "That if they would remain on their Lands, they should have the utmost Protection from the English; be always treated as their own Children, and never be suffered to want any Thing;" which seems to have fixed them.—The Garrison of Fort Thoulouse arrived here the 15th Instant, accompanied by about 300 Indians, called by the French the Alibamons, and by our Traders Stinking-Lingas, who are also come for Presents from the French, with whom they always lived in Friendship, though they never would fight against us. Before that Garrison quitted the Fort they destroyed all the Cannon, and the Stores they could not bring away; after which, they say, they delivered the Keys to the Wolf King, who immediately took Possession of it, and removed into it with his Family. As there is no Message from him yet to put it into Possession of the English, and his Intentions are not known, Col. Robertson has determined not to send a Garrison thither, 'til the Indians asked for one, which I am persuaded they never will.—The command sent to Tumbigbe Fort arrived there in 25 Days, without meeting with the least Interruption, and the Chactahs have hitherto behaved in the most friendly Manner. Major Forbes was here a few Days ago, from Pensacola, and is returned. Major Loftus is under Orders to proceed with the 22d Regiment to the Illinois, the 1st of January. The Land on the Albahma (or Alibamous) is in general esteemed as good as that on the Illinois."

—Feb. 11. Some Insinuations having been thrown out by the Creeks, that the Young Warrior of Ettatowih, was again inclined to go to War against us, and intimated, if their Nation would begin, that he would join them, for, that the approaching Spring the English intended to cut them all off, &c. &c. the Return of an Express from Fort Prince George, Kethowee, brings his positive Denial of those Charges, and as positive Assurances of his Fidelity. In a Talk which he gave the 26th ult. he says, that he and his People were all well pleased with the good Talks delivered at the late Congress at Augusta, and therefore he is the more surprised at what has been laid to his Charge. That the Creeks are Liars, and a most perfidious Nation. That they have killed Cherokees as well as white People. That he burns with Anger, whenever he hears them express their contemptible Opinion of the English, by saying, That they are all Women, and they will treat them as no other subsequent they should meet them; by asking, how they came to take War with the Cherokees? and, If there were any Men among them, why did they not resist what they (the Creeks) had done. That he thought, we could not be Strangers to the Designs of the Creeks, by their Behaviour at Augusta, and being all of them armed with long Knives and Pistols, with which he and his People hourly expected they would attempt to massacre both English and Cherokees. That they have sent him a Talk since the Congress, desiring that he will not resent any Injury that may be done to Traders, but that he was, and always should be, deaf to such Talks. That he had repeated Invitations from the Creeks during the late War, to go and settle amongst them, and that they have owed him a Grudge ever since he refused. That he is very ready to assist in putting the seven Murderers to Death mentioned in the Young-Twin's Talk, but they are a very small Part of the Rogues that have Mischief in their Hearts, for he has certain Information, that the whole Nation has resolved on a War with the English; that they design to way-lay all the Rivers, and particularly the Fords, all the way from St. Augustine to the head of Savannah River; and that they are cutting up all the Skins of their Winter's Hunt for Mockasins to proceed upon the Execution of their Designs. He desires, that the Warriors who are to relieve the Garrison of Fort Prince George, may have a strict Caution to be on their Guard, suspecting they may be way-laid by the Creeks; says, he shall soon remove his People from Toogoulloo to Estatowih; and concludes with the warmest Professions of Friendship and Fidelity.

Feb. 18. Among other Advices from the Cape, we have the following, viz. That not a Day passes without some English Vessels from the Northern Colonies going in there, for Water, &c. with which they are most kindly and readily supplied, especially for Two-Inch Plank, wanted for the Fortifications. That about five Weeks ago, two large Ships from France arrived there, full of Vagrants or Convicts, who were immediately set to work upon the Fortifications. That in every Ship from France, since the Conclusion of the Peace, 20 or 30 Soldiers arrive, and no less than 7000 are expected in a Body, with a Fleet. That there never was so much Attention paid as at this Time, to repair and strengthen the old, and erect new Works, throughout the French Part of the Island of Hispaniola; that to fortify every Place effectually, no less than seven old experienced Engineers lately arrived there from France, who, about Christmas, accompanied the Governor in a Man of War Snow, to make a new Survey of the whole North Coast, and lay out Works; but that they seemed most particularly attentive to the fortifying of Cape Nicola Mole and Samana, where the Works laid out are very extensive. And, that a Ship called the Jenny, belonging to Maryland, was lately lost going in there.

NEW-YORK, March 19.

The following is an Extract of a Letter of undoubted Credit from the D'Etrait, dated December 3. 1763.

"We have been lately very busy in procuring Abundance of Wheat, Flour, Indian Corn, and Peas, from the Country, in which we have so far succeeded as not to be in Danger of being starved out. The Approach of Major Wilkins's Party had very good Effect, the Enemy moved further off. It is said Pondiac, and his Tribe, are gone to the Mississippi; but we do not believe it: The French have been wonderfully civil this last Fortnight, being ignorant of the Return of the Troops, in which Major Gladwin does not think proper to undeceive them, lest they should bring the Indians upon us, who might harrass us in our present Employ, that of bringing in Wood for the Garrison, as we are obliged to fetch it a great Distance.

"The Wiondots of Sandusky are much animated against us: They have been reinforced lately by many Villains from all the Nations concerned in the War; and they are the only Indians this Way that abound in Ammunition, the other Nations being much in Want of that Article. They likewise plant Abundance of Indian Corn, which they often sell to other Nations that stand in Need of it: The Ottawas, it is thought, must depend upon them for that Article next Spring."

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.

Saturday last Captain Craig arrived here from Dominico. In his Passage, on the 12th Instant, in Lat. 36: 20, he fell in with Captain Mackey, in a Ship from Virginia for London, in great Distress; his Vessel had met with a violent Gale of Wind, in which she suffered great Damage, having her Stern beat in, and her Main and Mizen Masts were obliged to be cut away; and notwithstanding all their Endeavours, she proved so leaky, and was so full of Water, that they every Moment expected her to sink with them.—They had been in this dismal Condition five Days, when Captain Craig met with them, took them all into his Vessel, and brought them up to Town with him.—It is thought the Ship went down about two Hours after the People left her.

ANNAPOLIS, March 29.

Extract of a Letter from N.York, Mar. 20.

'By the Albany Post I received a Copy of the 'following Paragraph of a Letter from Sir Wm. 'Johnson, dated the 11th Instant, viz. "This "Moment I received an Account by Express "from Agbguaga, of another Party of mine ta-"king Three of the Enemy Prisoners, and one "Scalp; one made his Escape; they were going "to War."

To be SOLD by AUCTION,

WILLIAM RIND.

St. Mary's, 25th March, 1764.

THE Subscriber having formerly advertised those who were indebted to the Estate of Mr. John Hanbury, in London, deceased, That he had taken out Letters of Administration on the said Deceased's Estate in this Province, by Virtue of a Power from Osgood Hanbury, Esq; in London, and requiring all such Persons to come and pay off their respective Ballances, to which Advertisement little Regard has as yet been paid: He therefore gives this Public Notice, That he will attend at his Chambers adjoining the House of Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Annapolis, from the Twentieth to the last Day of April next, in order to receive the Ballances due to the said Estate, after which Time all Accounts remaining unpaid will be immediately put in Suit without further Notice.

N. B. This Advertisement is likewise to extend to all such Persons who are indebted to Messrs. Capel and Osgood Hanbury, and have declined their further Correspondence with them.

DANIEL WOLSTENHOLME.

WHEREAS I find it so difficult in carrying on Business in this Province for want of Circulating Cash, that I am determined to leave it in October next: Therefore this is once more earnestly to intreat all Persons that are indebted to me, to come and make immediate Payment, that I may be enabled to discharge those Demands that are against me, as it is grievous to an honest Mind to be incapable of discharging small Sums when large ones are due to him. Those who neglect this Public Notice, may depend on being Sued to June Court, as this is my last Time of asking. Those Persons that have just Claims against me, will be kind enough to bring them in, in order that they may be adjusted.
